Spacious open plan living areas – both formal and informal
– are adorned with breathtaking views which provide the perfect backdrop to every occasion – whether set to impress with a glittering celebration, relaxing with family, or stealing a moment of quiet reflection.

The location provides the elegance and grandeur of absolute private waterfront living and access to the water's edge. Start your day with a kayak or stand up paddle, enjoy sitting back to just take it all in or watch the sunset from your lakefront deck.

The large eastern yard provides an impressive entry, and great possibilities for creating your own ornate water garden, or open space for the family to relax and play.

Situated in proximity to West Lakes precinct walking paths, parks & reserves, schools, transport and West Lakes Shopping Center, 9 Beeston Way is your private sanctuary in the heart of the community.

The opportunity is yours... take it, and let the new legacy begin.
